

Creating Change 2015 Wrap Up

Thanks to everyone who joined us in Denver for Creating Change 2015! We enjoyed our biggest Day-Long institute ever, the connections we made in the suite, and the conversations we had with many of you. You can revisit everything we did by checking out our Facebook page and the hashtag #lgbtcampusCC15

Business Meeting

We kicked off the conference with our annual business meeting, with more than 100 people present. We celebrated Leslie Morrow with the Consortium's Award for Intersectionality and

Natasha Cox with our Promising New Professional Award

. Board members shared their accomplishments for the year.

Slides from the meeting are available on our website

. Also

visit the website to see our annual report

LGBT Campus Resource Professionals Institute

Thanks to Shaun Travers, our Education Chair, and the education committee who helped create our biggest institute yet ! 230 people attended the session. Professionals had the opportunity to connect with others in similar stages in their careers. Over lunch, our regional reps helped create local bonds. QTalks engaged and challenged the audience.

View all photos from the Creating Change 2015 Conference for Research and Engagement Faculty

View all photos from the Creating Change 2015 Conference for Research and Engagement Faculty