

The 25th National Conference on LGBT Equality: Creating Change

Atlanta, Georgia and the Hilton Atlanta

January 23–27, 2013.

The Consortium of Higher Education LGBT Resource Professionals was founded at the National Conference on LGBT Equality: Creating Change. Since that time, the Consortium has partnered with the Task Force to host its business meeting and offer a Day-Long Institute, general conference sessions, academy sessions, and much much more.

What's Creating Change?

Only the premier annual organizing and skills-building event for the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community and their allies.

The conference is run by the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force, and attracts more than 3,500 people from all over the country every year. Presenters and participants come from all walks of life and include members of the business community, elected officials, students, faith leaders and staff and volunteers of non-profit organizations.

The five-day program features over 350 workshops and training sessions, four plenary sessions, and tons of networking opportunities.

Register for the conference, apply for a scholarship/housing, find hotel information, and more:
<http://www.creatingchange.org>